A Message
From Our Boards

We are happy to report that Lanakila Pacific had a very strong year, both in terms of impact in the community and financial stability. After such a successful year, it is bittersweet to say mahalo and aloha to Marian Tsuji, President and CEO, whose dedication to Lanakila Pacific for fifteen years has been unwavering and visionary. Marian successfully led the organization through many challenges and helped it grow into the family of programs and services we know today.

As we bid farewell to Marian, it is a pleasure to welcome Rona Yagi Fukumoto, our new President and CEO. We look forward to her leadership and vision for the next chapter in Lanakila Pacific’s legacy of service to the community. She will guide Lanakila Pacific to new heights and find innovative ways to help those with cognitive, physical and age-related challenges to reach their goals and potential, while improving inclusiveness.

During the past year, Lanakila Pacific’s Teaching and Learning Centers (TLC) provided over 720 community outings to their participants. Our Training and Advocacy Program (TAP) provided job readiness and training to 84 participants while the four social enterprises employed 141 employees and trainees with significant disabilities. Lanakila Meals on Wheels delivered over 362,000 meals to seniors in need, and that need continues to grow as the population ages.

Lanakila Pacific continues to advance towards their strategic goals of financial self-sufficiency and mission impact growth. Without the help of our community, an organization like Lanakila Pacific could not exist. We ask for your continued support so we may continue to serve the growing needs of individuals with disabilities and our kupuna.

~Mahalo for your support~
It is exciting and humbling to address you as President and CEO of Lanakila Pacific. As I settle into the role, I am pleased to share that Lanakila Pacific enjoyed a prosperous 2017-2018 year. Our success is attributed to the nearly 15 years of Marian Tsuji’s visionary leadership. Marian’s passion and determination to build a resilient and enterprising organization is evident throughout.

With Marian’s legacy as a foundation, we continued to push forward with the completion of three new initiatives. First was the strategic hiring of Mariko Miho, Executive Director of Lanakila Pacific Foundation and VP of Lanakila Pacific in efforts to create a stronger fundraising focus.

Second was the expansion of programs - most notably the launch of the Summer Youth Employment Program by the Training and Advocacy Program (TAP). As a result, 45 youths were placed in jobs in both Lanakila Pacific’s social enterprises and in the community while invaluable partnerships with local employers were forged.

Finally, the Lanakila Pacific office enjoyed a much-anticipated makeover! New board member Savan Patel, Founder and President/Managing Principal of Infinium Interiors, designed a brighter, welcoming and more efficient workspace for our team.

As we embark on our next year together, we strive to further build programs and strengthen our community ties so that we can do more than simply share our mission. Over the next year, we will reach higher and inspire people to live their lives with purpose – a message Marian worked so hard to deliver.

Please join us as we strive to Inspire Purpose. Mahalo for supporting Lanakila Pacific.

With gratitude,

Rona Yagi Fukumoto
